

Capital of Germany in the Throes of Revolution

(ABOVE.) FOLLOWERS OF LIEBKNECHT CARRYING MACHINE GUNS THROUGH BERLIN. DISBANDED SOLDIERS AND SAILORS, AS WELL AS CIVILIANS, JOINED IN THE MOVEMENT, AND WERE AMPLY SUPPLIED WITH WEAPONS WHICH THEY OBTAINED FROM ARSENALS THEY HAD SEIZED.

(AT LEFT.) BARRICADES MADE OUT OF BUNDLES OF NEWSPAPERS BEHIND WHICH THE REVOLUTIONISTS WERE SHELTERED. THE NEWSPAPERS WERE OBTAINED FROM THE VORWAERTS BUILDING WHICH HAD BEEN STORMED BY THE RIOTERS.

FIELD GUNS BROUGHT INTO THE FIGHTING AGAINST THE SPARTACANS WHO HAD INTRENCHED THEMSELVES IN MASSIVE BUILDINGS THAT WERE IMMUNE TO ORDINARY RIFLE OR MACHINE GUN FIRE.
